Feel to Learn: Flower mirror

This flower-shaped sensory mirror for babies 6 months and up has contrasting colored edges and crunchy paper, just like real leaves. An ideal toy for babies that is full of surprises: from the excitement of discovering themselves reflected in the mirror, to the snapping of its edges when squeezed, which will help your baby learn through emotion and cognitive development. A safety mirror designed especially for babies from 6 to 12 months, which will bring you lots of smiles!

- Leaf-shaped safety mirror for babies (from 6 months).
- Stimulates their senses of sight, hearing and touch thanks to its high-contrast colors and crunchy edges.
- Stimulates their cognitive development and adapts to their developmental milestones, accompanying them from the age of 6 months when they begin to be surprised by their reflection, until they recognize themselves in it.
- Easy to clean and disinfect. Machine washable, although it is recommended to protect the mirror when washing.
