Feel to Learn: Stack & Roll Rings

If your baby is over 6 months old, they'll love this stackable ring roller! It consists of 4 rings with different sizes and colors, stackable, to promote spatial vision, reasoning, logic and motor skills. In addition, the rings have different textures, which stimulates the sense of touch, and the toy can be used as a roller by placing both lids to roll without stopping! This sensory toy is made in Spain, with 100% plant-based eco materials and 100% recyclable, very resistant and durable over time and is very easy to clean. The baby sensory stacking ring roller that will win over the whole family!
